

Benefits of NCCAOM Certification:

- The right to use the NCCAOM service marks and proudly designate yourself as Diplomate of Oriental Medicine (NCCAOM)[®], Diplomate of Acupuncture (NCCAOM)[®], Diplomate of Chinese Herbology (NCCAOM)[®], and Diplomate of Asian Bodywork Therapy (NCCAOM)[®].
- Release of NCCAOM test results and certification status to state licensing agencies at a reduced fee.
- Licensure portability between most states.
- Direct verification of status to insurance companies and other third-party vendors that require NCCAOM certification as a criterion for reimbursement.
- Access to NCCAOM Diplomate-only benefits such as a free customized website for your practice.
- A listing in the “Find a Practitioner Directory” which is published on the NCCAOM website (www.nccaom.org).
- A complimentary subscription to the NCCAOM newsletter, The Diplomate.
- The right to be considered by the NCCAOM Board Development Committee for appointment to the NCCAOM Board of Commissioners as a Professional Member.
- The right to be considered to serve on NCCAOM committees and taskforces.
- Eligibility to participate in national board examination development activities.

NATIONAL CERTIFICATION
COMMISSION FOR ACUPUNCTURE AND ORIENTAL MEDICINE
76 South Laura Street, Suite 1290
Jacksonville, FL 32202

P: (904) 598-1005
F: (904) 598-5001
E: info@thenccaom.org
www.nccaom.org

Public Protection Through Quality Credentials

A Guide to

NCCAOM[®] Certification

The NCCAOM Certification Process

Important Reminders:

- International applicants must apply for education evaluation prior to applying with NCCAOM.
- Application for NCCAOM certification is valid for 4 years. After 4 years, if certification is not achieved, application expires and the candidate must reapply.
- All exams are administered year round.
- Approved candidate must schedule his or her exam(s) with Pearson VUE Testing Center.
- In order to send NCCAOM exam results and certification verification to state licensure agencies, candidate/Diplomate must submit an order form to NCCAOM.

NCCAOM Certifications:

Acupuncture

Chinese Herbology

Oriental Medicine

Asian Bodywork Therapy

*ICD - International Consultants of Delaware