

NCCAOM® Examination

Frequently Asked Questions and Answers

The NCCAOM, a national certification organization, has compiled the following questions and answers to assist candidates and school representatives in understanding its exam administration policies and procedures. The NCCAOM is committed to maintaining the integrity and fairness of the NCCAOM exams, in order that they serve as meaningful measures of entry-level competence to practice acupuncture and herbal medicine. This commitment to public safety cannot be overstated; it is a requirement of our mission, which is to ensure the safety and well-being of the public and to advance the professional practice of acupuncture and Oriental medicine by establishing and promoting national evidence-based standards of competence and credentialing.

About the Exams

1. Are the exams offered in other languages besides English?

Yes. The Foundations of Oriental Medicine, Biomedicine, Acupuncture with Point Location, and Chinese Herbology exams are offered in Chinese and Korean languages.

Foreign language exams:

There are currently Chinese and Korean language versions of the NCCAOM exams, which are also offered at Pearson VUE test centers in linear format. Unfortunately, due to the inability to predict the number of candidates taking these exams along with the ability to offer them in other countries because of the unpredictable, imminent, ongoing coronavirus (COVID-19) situation occurring across the world, the NCCAOM has canceled the administration of the 2021 Chinese and Korean language exams. For more information, such as the exam format and content outlines, view the General Examination Information \(opens in new tab\) for Foreign Language Exams.

English language exams:

The English language adaptive versions of the NCCAOM exams are offered year-round at Pearson VUE test centers \(opens in new tab\). “Approved to Test” candidates those who have been notified by email that an Authorization to Test (ATT) letter is in their [NCCAOM online portal \(opens in new tab\) ready to print] can take the authorized Foundations of Oriental Medicine, Biomedicine, Acupuncture with Point Location, and Chinese Herbology exams throughout the year, pending availability at their desired test center location. Due to the constant changing of events regarding COVID-19, please view the Pearson VUE website \(opens in new tab\) for the latest update.

2. What is the format of the exam?

English language exams:

Adaptive testing allows the NCCAOM to provide year-round testing and preliminary exam results generated at the test center. Adaptive exams have long been used by other healthcare testing organizations and has been proven to be an efficient and reliable testing method.

In an adaptive exam, questions are selected for candidates according to the assigned domain percentages indicated from the exam content outline \(opens in new tab\). Within each domain, questions are selected to match candidate ability. What this means is that a candidate’s correct or incorrect answer to a question determines the next question they receive. If a question is answered correctly, the next question selected is more difficult. If a question is answered incorrectly, the next question selected is easier. Because the correct or incorrect answer to each question is used to select the next question, candidates are not able to change their answers to previous questions.

There are many benefits offered by adaptive testing. These include access to year-round testing, no exam registration deadlines, preliminary results provided at the test center, and expedited exam results delivery to state licensing Boards (upon candidate request). In addition, adaptive testing allows for more precise measurement of candidate ability using fewer questions than traditional linear exams. This feature allows adaptive exams to be shorter and therefore less expensive for candidates.

Foreign language exams:

The NCCAOM has canceled the administration of the 2021 Chinese and Korean language exams due to the inability to predict the number of candidates taking these exams along with the ability to offer them in other countries because of the unpredictable, imminent, ongoing COVID-19 situation going on across the world. Exams in Chinese and Korean are administered in computer-based, linear format. Questions are preselected for candidates according to the assigned domain percentages from the exam content outline \(opens in new tab\). Once all items have been answered, candidates can review and change any of their answers within the remaining allotted time. However, preliminary results are not provided at the test center. Official result notification letters will be mailed approximately 45 business days after conclusion of the exam administration period.

3. How do I prepare for an exam?

The NCCAOM provides a comprehensive NCCAOM® Candidate Preparation Handbook \(opens in new tab\) for each certification program. Each Handbook includes an overview of the examination process, the examination content outlines, test specifications, bibliographies, a cross-reference of terms that are frequently used in English language literature, sample questions for the exams, and this NCCAOM® Examination: Frequently Asked Questions and Answers document. The Handbooks are free to download from the Exam Preparation Center \(opens in new tab\) section of the NCCAOM website, but a paper copy may be requested for a fee. Individual exam content outlines can be downloaded directly from this page as well.

4. Does the NCCAOM publish a list of commonly used terms that may appear on the exam?

Yes. The NCCAOM currently provides a nomenclature list, which is a cross-reference of terms that are frequently used in English language literature. This nomenclature list is available within each of the NCCAOM® Candidate Preparation Handbook \(opens in new tab\).

5. For the Acupuncture with Point Location exam, are the acupuncture point number and pinyin provided?

Yes. The acupuncture point number and pinyin are provided for the points [e.g., CV (Ren) 6 (Qihai), Erbai (Extra), etc.].

6. Does the NCCAOM publish a list of single herbs and herbal formulas that will be tested on the Chinese Herbology exam?

Yes. A list of single herbs and herbal formulas are included with the Chinese Herbology (CH) content outline. Based on the results of the 2017 Job Analysis, the list of single herbs has been implemented as of January 2020. Content outlines can be accessed from the Exam Preparation Center \(opens in new tab\) section of the NCCAOM website.

7. What is covered in the Foundations of Oriental Medicine exam compared to the Acupuncture with Point Location exam?

Please refer to the NCCAOM® Candidate Preparation Handbook \(opens in new tab\) or the content outlines \(opens in new tab\), which can be accessed through the NCCAOM website under the Exam Preparation Center \(opens in new tab\) section. Each NCCAOM certification program has a NCCAOM® Candidate Preparation Handbook which contains all available examination preparation materials in one document along with the related content outlines.

Content outlines are available for each exam module in English, Chinese, and Korean.

8. Are there plans to combine any other exams or make changes with any of the exams?

No, there are no immediate plans. As determined by the 2017 Job Analysis, the content outlines \(opens in new tab\) are currently posted on the NCCAOM website and are effective as of January 1, 2020. The current content outlines are effective until the next Job Analysis. All English exam modules, Foundations of Oriental Medicine, Biomedicine, Acupuncture with Point Location, and Chinese Herbology, are administered in adaptive format.

Approved Candidates Scheduling an Exam

Approved Candidate:

An Approved Candidate is one who has met the NCCAOM eligibility requirements and has been authorized to register for the NCCAOM exams. Approved Candidates will receive notification by email that an authorization to test (ATT) letter is in their NCCAOM online portal \(opens in new tab\) ready to print. It is imperative that the candidate keep their physical address and name changes current with the NCCAOM. The ATT letter is especially important because it contains the information needed to schedule examinations and gain access to the Pearson VUE testing center. The candidate has the flexibility to select their own schedule and can register for an exam via telephone or online.

Note: If you have any questions regarding your ATT letter or whether you are an Approved Candidate, please email info@thenccaom.org.

9. When can I schedule an exam? Are there exam registration deadlines?

Candidates must allow 1 - 2 weeks, from the date their transcript and Clean Needle Technique (CNT) Certificate of Completion are received, for processing of their application, and for approval to take an exam. It is also important to remember that candidates must take and pass all required exams within four (4) years from the date that the NCCAOM processed their application payment.

English language exams:

Candidates taking an NCCAOM exam in English can schedule at any time. Open registration means that once candidates are approved to test receive an ATT letter via their [NCCAOM online portal \(opens in new tab\)], they can register and schedule their exam for any available time at their desired Pearson VUE test center. Candidates can register for their exams at their convenience.

Candidates who fail an exam 1 - 4 times must wait 45 calendar days before they can retake the same exam. The 45-day waiting period allows candidates to receive their diagnostic report and review any areas of weakness before repeating the exam. The NCCAOM strongly encourages candidates to study before retaking an exam. For information concerning additional attempts view the “Re-taking an Examination \(opens in new tab\)” on the When Taking Board Exams page from the NCCAOM website.

Foreign language exams:

The NCCAOM has canceled the administration of the 2021 Chinese and Korean language exams due to the inability to predict the number of candidates taking these exams along with the ability to offer them in other countries because of the unpredictable, imminent, ongoing COVID-19 situation taking place across the world. Foreign language exams have registration deadlines, unlike the year-round adaptive tests. For the most current information about these exams, view the General Examination Information \(opens in new tab\) for the Foreign Language Exams.

10. How do I schedule an exam?

Candidates can schedule an NCCAOM exam by calling Pearson VUE directly at (888) 235-7649, Monday through Friday, 7am-7pm CT, or by scheduling online at the Pearson VUE NCCAOM Certification Testing \(opens in new tab\). The candidate’s ATT letter provides registration information and detailed instructions on how to schedule an exam. Candidates can schedule their exams within the four-year period after their application has been approved. NCCAOM exams are administered at over 250 Pearson VUE Professional Test Centers around the world. When candidates schedule an exam, they pay Pearson VUE directly using Visa, MasterCard, or American Express credit cards. Due to the constant changing of events regarding COVID-19, please view the Pearson VUE website \(opens in new tab\) for the latest update.

Taking the Exam

11. Is it true that the computer screen turns off after 5 minutes, from the time the computer is started by the proctor, if the first question is not answered?

Yes. The first question on the computer screen is a legal agreement that says you will treat everything you see on the exam with the utmost and absolute confidentiality. You will have 5 minutes to review the agreement and select “I agree” to begin your exam. To ensure you are prepared for this step, please read the full text of the Non-Disclosure Agreement and Full Terms of Use for the NCCAOM Exam below.

If you do not accept this agreement presented on-screen within the allotted 5 minutes, your exam will terminate, and you will be locked out of the computer. In addition, you will not be allowed to continue with your exam and your fees for that exam will not be refunded. According to Pearson VUE rules, you may not begin writing on your note board until your test has been started. Therefore, candidates should not use their note boards until after they have agreed to the Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA). If your exam terminates because you were writing on your note board during the NDA, Pearson VUE will not be able to start your exam again, you will forfeit all the fees paid for the exam, and you will have to reregister and pay full fees for the exam if you wish to take it again. For more information, please contact info@thnccaom.org.

Non-Disclosure Agreement and General Terms of Use for NCCAOM Exams

“I have read and understand the Examination Instructions. I have agreed to abide by the NCCAOM® Grounds for Professional Discipline and acknowledge that if I am caught cheating on this examination, including the sharing of information after the examination is complete; I will be subject to review by the Professional Ethics and Disciplinary Committee of NCCAOM. If I am found to have violated the Grounds for Professional Discipline, I understand that my scores will be canceled, and I may not have the opportunity to test again.

Additionally, I understand that this exam is confidential and is protected by trade secret law. It is made available solely for the purpose of becoming certified by NCCAOM. I am expressly prohibited from disclosing, publishing, reproducing, or transmitting this exam, in whole or in part, in any form or by any means, verbal or written, electronic or mechanical, for any purpose.

I am the candidate whose name appears on the initial screen and as an affirmation to the Statement of Acknowledgement I signed when submitting my application. I acknowledge that I am prohibited from transmitting information about NCCAOM examination questions or content in any form to any person or entity. I also acknowledge that if I suspect a violation on the part of others, it is my responsibility to report these actions to the NCCAOM.”

The NCCAOM is committed to the integrity and security of its examinations. Candidates have a duty to maintain strict confidentiality with respect to the content of the examinations and comply with all examination security policies and procedures. Any breach of confidentiality that may compromise the security of the examination content (e.g., sharing or receiving information about the examination from another person including teachers/professors, before, during, or after the examination) will be grounds for disciplinary action, including but not limited to denial or revocation of certification by the NCCAOM.

12. Do all the questions have to be answered on the exam or can some answers be blank?

English language exams:

You must answer all the questions for your examination to be scored. Adaptive testing that is offered year-round does not allow the test-taker to go back to review a question once they have moved onto the next question. See the answer to Question #2 for additional information.

Foreign language exams:

Exams in Chinese and Korean are administered in computer-based, linear format. The linear administered format allows candidates to go back and review their answers once all questions are completed within the allotted time. See the answer to Question #2 for additional information.

13. What happens if there are computer technical difficulties or a power outage at the test center?

On rare occasions, technical difficulties at the test center may be encountered. If the test center experiences an unexpected, temporary power outage during an administration, back-up systems are in place, so every reasonable effort will be made to retrieve testing data. The candidate's examination will restart from the point where it was interrupted, and the candidate continues the examination. Every attempt is made to administer the examination as scheduled; however, should an examination be canceled at a testing center, all scheduled candidates will receive notification by e-mail or telephone regarding rescheduling.

14. I think one of the questions I received could have more than one correct answer. What is the procedure to have this question reviewed?

At the test center a candidate can file an incident report regarding exam content concerns with the test proctor while the item is still fresh in one's mind. The test proctor is only allowed to record the question (item) number as they are not allowed to record any exam content specifics or description of the exam items. Be sure to obtain a copy of the incident report number. The incident report will be forwarded onto NCCAOM's Testing staff upon request, and the concerns will be reviewed by multiple subject matter experts (licensed Acupuncturists who are considered experts in the exam content).

Also, please refer to the Examination Content Complaint \(opens in new tab\) section of the NCCAOM® Certification Handbook \(opens in new tab\). Candidates may submit concerns, suspected errors in particular questions, or comments about specific aspects of the examination content by emailing the NCCAOM Testing staff at examcontent@thenccaom.org. All concerns must be in writing and received within 30 days of your exam. Please be as specific as possible when challenging a question(s) for the subject matter experts to review (e.g., an item with a pregnant woman had more than one correct answer).

Please note that no specific exam content will be discussed with candidates, including whether your answers were correct or incorrect. The NCCAOM never releases copies of examinations or individual questions. This is considered best practice within the licensure/certification testing industry and the NCCAOM must protect the integrity of the exam – most especially its content. As the NCCAOM’s mission is to ensure the safety and wellbeing of the public, we take the security of our exam content very seriously and therefore never share any specific information about questions with candidates.

It is important to refrain from discussing content of the exam with anyone other than the NCCAOM Testing staff at examcontent@thenccaom.org, otherwise you will be in violation of the Non-Disclosure Agreement you accepted at the test center. The NCCAOM is committed to the integrity and security of its examinations. Candidates have a duty to maintain strict confidentiality with respect to the content of the examinations and comply with all examination security policies and procedures. Any breach of confidentiality that may compromise the security of the examination content (e.g., sharing or receiving information about the examination from another person including teachers/professors, before, during, or after the examination) will be grounds for disciplinary action, including but not limited to denial or revocation of certification by the NCCAOM.

15. There were several questions on my exam that were not taught at my school, can you explain?

Please remember that the NCCAOM offers national certification examinations. NCCAOM conducts a Job Analysis (JA) every five to seven years to validate and ensure that our certification examinations are reflective of current practice in all regions of the United States and not just one geographic region. NCCAOM exams are derived from the JA survey and do not match school curriculum as that is not the job of a national certification exam. It measures competency of current practice and not what schools are teaching. It would be very difficult to match the curriculum of 60 plus schools. For more information, please read an article from Acupuncture Today \(opens in new tab\).

Exam Attempts

16. If I fail the exam, when can I take it again?

Candidates who fail an exam 1 - 4 times must wait 45 calendar days from their previous attempt before they can take it again. The NCCAOM recommends that you give yourself sufficient time to prepare to retake the exam that you failed. NCCAOM has recently changed the number of exam attempts, for additional information view “Re-taking an Examination \(opens in new tab\)” on the When Taking Board Exams page from the NCCAOM website.

17. Is there a limit as to how many times an exam can be taken?

Candidates have five (5) opportunities to successfully pass an examination once their graduate transcript and CNT Certificate are received at NCCAOM. After the fifth unsuccessful attempt to pass an NCCAOM examination (all formats and/or languages inclusive), the candidate must satisfy additional educational requirements based on multiple factors like certification application validity, etc. to receive additional exam attempts. For additional information refer to “Re-taking an Examination \(opens in new tab\)” on the When Taking Board Exams page on the NCCAOM website. NCCAOM has initiated a new attempt policy after the fifth unsuccessful attempt. Please email examattempts@thenccaom.org for further information.

Exam Scoring and Results

18. How many questions must be answered correctly to pass an exam?

There is NO predetermined number of questions that must be answered correctly to pass an exam. It is not the number of correct answers that determines whether a candidate passes, but their overall score based on the difficulty of the questions answered correctly. For additional information, read General Considerations for Setting a Passing Standard \(pdf\), and Equating and Scaling: Assuring the Highest Level of Fairness for Examination Programs \(pdf\), accessible on the “Examination Results” section from the Examination Process \(opens in new tab\) page on the NCCAOM website.

19. What is a scaled score?

Scaled scores are measures of candidate performance, and the higher the score, the better the performance. Scaled scores range from 1 to 99, with 70 designated as the passing score. Scaled scores DO NOT represent the percentage of questions answered correctly on the exam. For additional information, read General Considerations for Setting a Passing Standard \(pdf\), and Equating and Scaling: Assuring the Highest Level of Fairness for Examination Programs \(pdf\), accessible on the “Examination Results” section from the Examination Process \(opens in new tab\) page on the NCCAOM website.

English language exams:

A candidate’s raw score (the total number of questions answered correctly), taking into consideration question difficulty, is transformed into a scaled score. Because each candidate answers a unique set of questions on an adaptive exam, scaled scores are reported to provide a direct comparison of performance across candidates and exams. This allows candidates to be held to the same passing standard regardless of which questions they receive.

Foreign language exams:

A candidate’s raw score (the total number of questions answered correctly) is transformed into a scaled score for reporting purposes. This transformation is necessary because multiple forms are administered for each of our exams. Candidates are held to the same passing standard regardless of which form they take, so scaled scores are reported instead of raw scores to provide a direct comparison of performance across forms and administrations.

20. When will I receive my exam results?

English language exams:

Immediately after completing an adaptive format exam at a Pearson VUE test center, candidates receive preliminary notification on-screen regarding whether they passed or failed the exam. As stated, these results are preliminary and are verified by a third-party testing company before becoming official. An official results letter will be mailed to the candidate within 20 business days after completion of the exam. Until the official results letter is received, exam results are considered preliminary. Candidates can request that their exam results be sent directly to their state licensing Board, which may expedite the state licensure process.

Foreign language exams:

Preliminary results are not provided for foreign language exams. An official results letter will be mailed to candidates approximately 45 business days after the last day of the exam administration period.

Please maintain all official exam result letters and certification approval email in your permanent files.

21. I failed the exam. What areas do I need to focus on for the next exam?

The NCCAOM recommends that you use the scaled scores in the Examination Content Area Diagnostic Report in your official results letter to provide guidance regarding the area(s) in which remediation is needed, starting in the area with the lowest scaled score. However, keep in mind that each content area consists of a small number of questions, making this information less reliable than the total scaled score that measures overall exam performance. In other words, the small number of questions in each content area limits the degree to which you can generalize performance to a strength or weakness in a content area. Regardless of your content area scaled scores, the NCCAOM suggests that you study the entire Content Outline in preparation for your next exam, which are free to download from the Exam Preparation Center \(opens in new tab\) section of the NCCAOM website. The NCCAOM Testing staff are not subject matter experts and cannot provide any guidance on how to study for the exam.

The NCCAOM strongly encourages any candidate who fails to seek guidance on how to prepare for the exam. Speak with your school program director, a faculty member, or a mentor, or research reputable test preparation services or publications that can assist you. The NCCAOM® Candidate Preparation Handbook, which contain the Content Outlines and a bibliography of study references, are valuable resources and can be downloaded for free from the NCCAOM website under the Exam Preparation Center \(opens in new tab\) section.

22. I failed the exam. How do I request verification of my exam results and overall scaled score?

You may request that your exam be rescored within 30 days of receiving initial notification that you failed the exam. The score verification process is simply a manual check of the computer's scoring, conducted by NCCAOM Testing staff, to ensure that your responses were accurately recorded. Score verification does not include a review of examination content or reconsideration of the correct answer to any item.

Individual items and exam content will not be discussed or considered during the score verification process. If you would like to submit a score verification request, please complete the NCCAOM® Score Verification Request form \(opens in new tab\). An invoice will be issued on your NCCAOM online portal \(opens in new tab\) where you will apply payment. There is a $100 score verification fee per exam.

Please note that the NCCAOM does not encourage score verification requests. We enforce strict quality control procedures to ensure exam results are accurate before they are released to candidates. Every exam is scored independently by two professional testing companies to ensure each item is scored accurately and the overall score is correct. In addition, both testing companies have multiple checks in place to flag anomalies in test data that require investigation. Due to the thoroughness of the NCCAOM's examination scoring procedures, no errors have ever been identified from a score verification request.

23. How did I fail the exam when the average of my content area scaled scores was 70 (or higher)?

Your overall scaled score cannot be calculated from the content area scaled scores provided on your Examination Content Area Diagnostic Report. The content areas contain varying numbers of questions, so an average of your content areas scores is not the same as your overall scaled score. Your overall scaled score is based solely on your performance on the entire exam.

For additional information, read General Considerations for Setting a Passing Standard \(pdf\), and Equating and Scaling: Assuring the Highest Level of Fairness for Examination Programs \(pdf\), accessible on the “Examination Results” section from the Examination Process \(opens in new tab\) page on the NCCAOM website.

24. I passed the exam. What was my score?

Candidates who pass the exam will not receive their total score or a breakdown of their performance in each content area. NCCAOM exams are designed to test entry-level competence to practice, not to measure excellence.

The purpose of the Examination Content Area Diagnostic Report is to assist candidates who fail the exam in understanding the strengths and weaknesses of their performance and to help focus study efforts.

25. How many candidates pass the exams on their first attempt?

Please refer to the chart below for 2017-2020 exam pass rates for first-time takers from Certification Route 1: Formal Education: United States Applicants.

Exam Module	2017	2018	2019	2020*
Acupuncture with Point Location	79.4	77.8	75.9	74.2
Biomedicine	74.5	75.5	75.8	72.3
Chinese Herbology	83.9	78.4	72.2	63.0
Foundations of Oriental Medicine	79.1	78.6	79.2	95.4

Obtaining Certification

26. I passed all the required exams. Does this mean I am now certified?

Passing all required NCCAOM exams does not automatically result in certification. Candidates are certified and become a Diplomate of NCCAOM, after all required documents are accepted. Then their name appears on the NCCAOM Registry \(opens in new tab\). See the NCCAOM® Certification Handbook \(opens in new tab\) for information about the documents required to become certified.

Diplomates may represent or advertise their NCCAOM certification to employers, insurance companies and the public by directing them to the NCCAOM Registry \(opens in new tab\). Certified active Diplomates will receive the official NCCAOM congratulatory letter, the wallet-size identification card, and a wall certificate suitable for framing approximately six (6) weeks after certification (active Diplomate status) is achieved. USPS maintains tracking information for only 90 days. Please email the NCCAOM at info@thenccaom.org if you have not received your certificate and ID card at ten (10) weeks after certification.

It is the candidate's responsibility to submit a request to the NCCAOM via their online portal for their results to be sent to any regulatory agencies.

27. How long are my exam results valid?

Continued Active Diplomate status through initial certification and continued recertification ensures that exam results do not expire.

A limit is placed on the number of years an exam result is valid for the purpose of NCCAOM certification. The NCCAOM grants up to 12 years for first time candidate exam validity.

Status:

Exam Score Validity for Achieving Initial Certification:

Diplomate - Certified, Active

No expiration date

Former Diplomate - Inactive

No expiration date [for up to 2 years]

Former Diplomate - Lapsed

3 years from active certification expiration date

Former Diplomate - Terminated

All exam results expired

Candidate - Application in Process

12 years from exam date

Candidate - Reapply Application in Process

12 years from exam date

Candidate - Application Expired

12 years from exam date
