

NCCAOM Diplomat Benefits

Accessing
“My Learning” section
Of Diplomat’s Portal

As an NCCAOM certified Diplomate, you may enjoy the benefits of a multitude of programs & services endorsed by the NCCAOM.

One of the programs – “My Learning” section allows Diplomates to have a personal repository of certificates of completion for PDA approved courses taken since September of 2019. Diplomates can print/download any of the certificates of completion for state of other purposes.

To access the “My Learning” section, Diplomates would have to:

1. Login to their NCCAOM certification account.
2. Once logged in, click “Diplomate Benefits” orange

This is your NCCAOM® online portal where you are able to apply for new certification, recertification, track your application status, report your continuing education (PDA) points, submit a state verification request and access your Diplomate Benefits.

Please keep your contact information current at all times so you receive all important announcements and policy changes from NCCAOM®. You may update your contact information by clicking one of the Update links in the Profile and Contact Info sections below.
