

PDA Provider Attestation

By signing below, I affirm that the course materials supplied are accurate, true, and correct in all respects. As a NCCAOM® Professional Development Activity (PDA) Provider, I agree to comply with the highest ethical standards and all applicable laws to ensure accurate and truthful continuing education presentations and documentation. I attest that my course content, materials, presentation, and instruction (“Course Material”) meet NCCAOM PDA requirements and comply with NCCAOM’s mission to assure participant and public safety. I further attest that my Course Material does not infringe the intellectual property rights of any third party. Furthermore, I acknowledge that NCCAOM may waive any and all rights to liability related to my Course Material. I will not state or imply, or allow others to state or imply, that NCCAOM endorses instructor activities and/or statements before, during, or after classes, and agree that I will inform students that NCCAOM does not endorse instructor activities and/or statements before, during, or after course completion. I further agree, for myself and on behalf of anyone claiming by, through or under me to waive, release, indemnify, discharge, and covenant not to sue NCCAOM from and against any liability, claims, demands, or causes of action whatsoever, arising out of any injury, loss, or damage, that participants or the public may sustain related to the use of the Course Material. I understand that this Release is governed by the laws of District of Columbia, U.S.A. I agree to abide by the NCCAOM® Code of Ethics, the NCCAOM® Grounds for Professional Discipline, the NCCAOM® PDA Department and Provider Agreement, and the NCCAOM® PDA Product and Service Disclaimer. I understand that I am responsible for the content of the program advertisement, and I assure adherence to ethical standards in advertising the continuing education program truthfully and to avoid misleading the public. This Attestation shall survive the termination or the expiration of my relationship with NCCAOM.
